(feat. DHT)

(Listen to your heart...)

(Listen to your heart)

[Jon Young:]

Just gotta listen to my heart
but I keep on ending up right back in the start
I see the finish line
But something always in the way
But I gotta keep grinding 'cause I'll reach it one day

[Chorus:]

Sometimes you wonder if this fight is worthwhile.
The precious moments are all lost in the tide
Listen to your heart

[Jon Young:]

Just gotta listen to my heart
but I keep on ending up right back in the start
I see the finish line
But something always in the way
But I gotta keep grinding 'cause I'll reach it one day

[Verse 1: Jon Young]

When things seem impossible
You gotta realize anything is possible

So

Keep grinding
Listen to your heart
Hold yourself together
Don't fall apart

Yeah, yeah,
uuhh...

Been in the game for years
Good times & plenty tears
I done seen it all

Pure hate
To stand in cheers
Yea it's a long road
Anything worth sumthin iz thought of quittin
Yea I have
But I aint the type to quit
I'm from a region
That was over looked for too long
So my struggle's that much harder
Thank I'm leavin
Boy ya wrong
I gotta fanbase
and I aint even on a label
I'm pushin units
Make bread right under the table
Now what that tell ya
Tha south aint even close to fihished
We got talent
And we grind so this aint eva endin
So all my potnas in tha O
If u tryna make it
Jus keep grindin
Cuz ours for the takin

[Chorus:]

Sometimes you wonder if this fight is worthwhile.
The precious moments are all lost in the tide

[Jon Young:]

Just gotta listen to my heart
but I keep on ending up right back in the start
I see the finish line
But something always in the way
But I gotta keep grinding 'cause I'll reach it one day

[Verse 2: J Cash]

You gotta listen to your heart if you got some.
Gotta give it all if you really want something.
Ya Cant hold back, gotta go full on.
And if ya fail then that dont make you a fool dogg.
It aint easy, believe me, I know you know me.
I came from nuttin to suddin and I keep growing.
Not just from flowing, but homie from my life too.
Make something of yourself, be a man, get it right dude.
The fast money, the cash money, it sound cool.
But where ya gonna go when you dont finish high school?
Now I aint trying say dont get your hustle on.
If you do, thats cool, but its a struggle dogg.
So make the smart choices, try to do what seems best.

This a test so live for you homie bump the rest.
Look out for number one, and when its hard to smile.
Remember all along the fight is always worth the while

[Chorus:]

Sometimes you wonder if this fight is worthwhile.
The precious moments are all lost in the tide

[Jon Young:]

Just gotta listen to my heart
but I keep on ending up right back in the start
I see the finish line
But something always in the way
But I gotta keep grinding 'cause I'll reach it one day

When things seem impossible
You gotta realize anything is possible

So
Keep grinding just
Listen to your heart
