[Dirt Gritie] We all want to be free and live righteous Capitalism has got a tight grip On my wage, what I'm paid, what I might get For my services, trade or my talents Living in a boom city More jobs, education, opportunity More immigrants with degrees and diplomas More cab drivers and Tim Horton workers, Yayyy They raised the minimum wage And lowered the G.S.T now ain't that great But what about the income tax A billion plus surplus could we get some back Lowered tuitions, now how bout that Cause with the boom comes more demands More water used up in the tar sands More sewage and more consumption [Saint - Chorus - 1X] Maybe it's my superstition But I never trust no politician Poor people always end up victim To Babylon supported system But I say wait, wait, wait Dem time soon come Dem time soon come But I say wait, wait, wait Dem time soon come Dem time soon come [Arlo Maverick] Picture this, I'm a man with a family When my bills stack, ain't nobody gonna hand me Free cash, gotta work for mine Be it robbing or thieving I worked for mine Now boom or bust, in it we trust No tits, no ass, for it we lust No hips, no lips for it we lust It sucks and sucks until we bust [Proveli Paragon] Back on my grizzle Slide my paper under the table Quit the fables International trade is vital You should be learning from my recital If you really wanna compete with American dollars Holla at the goddamn foreigners Nobody with a SIN number shoulda' been asking an immigrant like me for change Y'all need a lil' bit of something they call CHANGE [Saint - Chorus - 1X] Maybe it's my superstition But I never trust no politician Poor people always end up victim To Babylon supported system But I say wait, wait, wait Dem time soon come Dem time soon come But I say wait, wait, wait Dem time soon come Dem time soon come [Arlo Maverick] With an eco boom, that's so outrageous Don't you think they should up our wages? Keep saying that the province rich That's a lie, let me tell you what the province is It's a place where government makes the cash Need proof, well ask the middle class Taxed on this and taxed on that Work three jobs and you can't save jack [Dirt Gritie] Still there's more urban sprawl and more corruption More services off the federal budget More greed and Politicians More problems and indecision Slow it down let's have an intervention And point this ship in the right direction Before we see more class division Money can't be our only incentive [Saint - Chorus - 1X] Maybe it's my superstition But I never trust no politician Poor people always end up victim To Babylon supported system But I say wait, wait, wait

come
