So you think you can own me, well you'd better just think again

You'd better watch your steps now, woman, cause I ain't like those other men

There's something burning inside me that makes me want to be free

And when I get these feelings honey, you better keep away from me

There's things in life now, baby, that I know I've got to do

And I need your love now, baby, to help me see it through

So you think you can own me, well you'd better just think again

You'd better watch your steps now, woman, cause I ain't like those other men

So you think you can own me, well you'd better just think again

You'd better watch your steps now, woman, cause I ain't like those other men

There's something burning inside me that makes me want to be free
