I'm the one who's up tonite(tonight)
Fearing the worst is fine
Nothing's out of reach now
Don't men kill for a home?
They steal for a little love
I've got it all, but it's always gonna rain

A brave heritage
Fail-safe confidence
I'd feel lucky just to catch a cool breath of it
The way I look at the wall
Like I'm waiting for the big fall
"It's gonna happen this time, I'm sure"
Wasting it all for the unknown

And to this tune
Always assume the tricks on you
When something holds me up
Red lights shine
Don't men kill for a home?
They steal for a little love
I've got it all, but it's always gonna rain

I'll be alive tomorrow I know
But then again there's a chance that I won't
