Tonight tonite will be the latest asterisk*
If you thought today would bleed into tomorrow
You'd be wrong
I watched it rain, it was a shortcut to that perfect feeling
When you haunt your own house, it's like stealing lines

Tonite Tonight, no loose ends meet Don't make a change, don't make it hard on yourself, just leave well alone
Drawing a blank, drawing arms and legs Drawn to the blank, drawing eyes and ears

la la la la la la la Soft and fog, streamlined drinking songs do do do do do

Tonite Tonight
A cat in a birdhouse, so full of being emptied
Tonight Tonite
A waiting room, a long line
If you thought today would bleed into tomorrow
