I was always insecure
I never was too sure
That what we did that night was right
Or very wrong

It was never in dispute
It was always understood
But I can't leave it there

Now what am I supposed to do about it

Rest your weary head with mine
I'll take you through the night
And bring you to the dawn in hope

But don't turn your head around
No matter what you see
You cannot return

You're caught by the magnet
Drawn to the light
Like a prisoner you are captured
You are left without a choice

Now it's all because of you
That I don't know what to do
My memory's confused when I recall that night

Now the coin is in the air
And I don't know if I care too much
Which way it lands

Oh and what am I supposed to do about it

Rest your weary head with mine
I'll take you through the night
And bring you to the dawn in hope

But don't turn your head around
No matter what you see
You cannot return

You're caught by the magnet
Drawn to the light
Like a prisoner you are captured
You are left without a choice - oh

That night rest your weary head with mine Take me through the night I'll take you through the night
Take me through the night to the dawn and bring you to the dawn in Hope

It's all because of you but don't turn your head around
I don't know what to do no matter what you see
My memory's confused that night you cannot return

Oh I can't undo that night...
