"I Can Tell"

It's in the way you caress my face
Like you always used to but differently
We can smile to hide the shame
Here in the pouring rain waiting for the sun
I'm crying here all alone standing next to you
You have done your best to see it through
But oh baby

CHORUS

I can tell
By the way that you love me
I can tell
That the fire's burning out
Oh baby, I can tell
By the way that you hold me
I can tell
That the fire's burning out

Moving down an open road
Asking our hearts for direction
'Cause we're so close
I can see the faded signs
Leading to the same destinations
But you're not there
We're dancing to the music
That ended long ago
You've done everything that you can do

CHORUS

Oh I, Oh I, Oh I, Oh I, Oh I
My heart is in the wind
Drifting over you
I've done everything that I can do

CHORUS (fades out)
