"Good Company"

Said bring that good company
Gonna boogie to the music so sweet
Lights low, curtains down to the knee
Held tight, feeling right, good energy

Laying easy till the morning time calls
Loneliness, in good riddance it falls
Moonlight sings while starlight brings
Good things

Steady rock easy, rock steady slow
Hold a bit just let your mind go
Come close, intertwine, you know
Feeling so right from your head to your toes

Smile bright
And let your soul shine
Good company™s got you feeling quite fine
Spring-summer breeze is blowing through the trees
Singing, œwe could all use some good company!â€

Chorus:
Said bring that good company
Gonna boogie to the music so sweet
Lights low, curtains down to the knee
Held tight, feeling right, good energy

Laying easy till the morning time calls
Loneliness, in good riddance it falls
Moonlight sings while starlight brings
Good things

Total darkness but the candles and the moon
Got minds to ease, and souls to soothe
No worries or troubles to be found
You keep it so right you™re always welcome around

Live it up, live it well and be free
Choices and opinions, we all see things differently
Well I may be wrong, but I think that you™d agree

We could all use some good company

So, just let it be
Kicking back easy to the ocean and the sea.
Waves crashing, right up to your toes
Your pulling me, and I'm pulling you close

Ohh, just relax the mind
Forever keep feeling fine
Drift away to your sweet, sweet dreams
The goodness that good company brings

Said bring that good company
Gonna boogie to the music so sweet
Lights low, curtains down to the knee
Held tight, feeling right, good energy

Laying easy till the morning time calls
Loneliness, in good riddance it falls
Moonlight sings while starlight brings
Good things
