Calm down and get straight
It's in our eyes, it's how we operate
You're true, you are
I'd apologize but it won't go very far

Please, come here
Come right on over
And when we collide
We'll see what gets left over

A little joy, a little sorrow
And a little pride
So we won't have to borrow
Wherever you lead, I'll follow

Turn me inside out and upside down
And try to see things my way
Turn a new page, tear the old one out
I'll try to see things your way

Please, come here
Please, come on over
There is no line
That you can't step right over

Without you, well, I'm left hollow
So can we decide to try a little joy tomorrow?
'Cos baby, tonight I'll follow

Turn me inside out and upside down
And try to see things my way
Turn a new page, tear the old one out
And I'll try to see things your way

The way that we've been speaking now
I swear that we'd be friends, I swear
'Cos all these little deals go down with Little consequences, we share, we share

Turn me inside out and upside down
And try to see things my ways

Turn a new page, tear the old one out
And I'll try to see things your way

And I'm gonna love you anyway
I'll try to see things your way
I'll try to see things your way
I'll try to see things your way
I'll try to see things your way
