

KGB, The "Isabella"

She was a girl
In a shadow
On the corner of the sun
She was the one
And I know
That I was a fool
In a cobweb
On the corner of the moon
Only I found out too soon
That she and I were doomed
All the while

Isabella is there evil in your smile

Isabella, am I just another incidental lover
Sugar am I just another mistake in your files
Aw but you'll come back to me
In a while

Isabella is there evil in your smile

Love was alive
In a tear drop
That trickles down her cheek
I'm too choked up to speak
And she and I've grown deep
In denial
