Last night i found a lover undercover in my sheets
I didnt get outta bed for weeks
Romeo's got nothing on me
Romeo's got nothing on me.

I woke up in a haze
Grabbed my microphone and my brief case
Stepped out the door and fell flat on my face.
Eyes glazed
I must get blazed
Gravity fights me from every which way.

Oh

And my how my mind just strays
Its an off day
The skies are grey
But if it rains you'll find me swimming
I've been living in a dream that used to seem
So real.
I used to feel.

Last night i found a lover undercover in my sheets
I didnt get outta bed for weeks
Romeo's got nothing on me
Romeo's got nothing on me. (x2)

On a carpet stand from wall to wall
In an apartment full of alcohol
I sleep walk around my lonely orbital
And the ocean calls
It says
Find that girl
Before shes gone
She might have a crush but it wont last long
It said find that girl (that girl)
Before she's gone

Lately ive been living in a dream that used to seem so real
I used to feel

Last night I found a lover undercover in my sheets
I didnt get outta bed for weeks
Romeo's got nothing on me
Romeo's got nothing on me. (x3)

Ooh ooh

Romeo's got nothing on me

I wanna send a shout out to all the ladies out there in radio land
I want you all to know that the KGB loves you
Thats right, you.

Last night i found a lover undercover in my sheets
I didnt get outta bed for weeks
Romeo's got nothing on me
Romeo's got nothing on me. (until end)
