Maybe I'll break this heart in two Hail the ones with nothing left to lose

You thought you were safe inside your nest
I've followed your footsteps, giving you away
I can see you through the fog
Closing time
Don't panic and hit the alarm
Stay calm

All adds up, eating from inside
Nerves like snakes, nothing left to hide

You thought you were safe inside your nest
I've followed your footsteps, giving you away
I can see you through the fog
Closing time
Don't panic and hit the alarm

Taking aim. I've waited to come here, to see what you look like
And you're just like me - you'll panic and hit the alarm
Stay calm
