they decided while we were asleep let out of the light they declared as we woke up the nightmare that clouds the sky
all of the times you've shown you don't care sleep with one eye open for how long can you hold yor breath

meet me upside
don't dare to take it slow cause this thing's realy going to blow stick with me now
sit tight
end of the show cause this is all i really now way comes on from dusk til dawn so dence you can hardly breath the sound of a gun, shot at close the sounds of reality

cause this thing's really going to blow
sit tight
end of the show
cause this is really going to blow
