This time around
I won't get by
Let's say I miss you...
Do you miss me too?

A troubled mind
Can't bring this down
When I see you smile
It all comes clear to me

Let's shake it off
And get back one step
Rewind or hit reset
'Cause the sun
Won't shine forever through these walls
But I cracked both our master plans
Oh, how I love you
How I love this after all

Don't need the fights
No need to cry
This can't be loser's round
With thousands in the crowd

And I'd break my back
To keep you safe
Hell! I'd break every single bone

Take, takes a while to figure it out
But I believe it doesn't really matter
We'll work this out for sure girl
We'll work this out for sure girl

And I'd break my back
Oh yeah, I would break my back
'Cause I love you
Oh, I love this after all
