I bet the situation
Turned into a nasty one
So bring your guns and make your move

It maybe looked like one step forward
When we lost it down the road
"One giant leap" would be my choice

I panicked and I ran
Lost track, with no way back
I picked up on this trace
Will it lead me further?

Hold on my friend
Or the wind will hit you down again
It's all one big mess
Let's hope the storm will fade away

Spread all the way out to my finger tips
As frightening as one million ghosts

Am I the bad cop this time
Since I'm out there to get you?

No, I steal and I plunder
I hope that you don't mind

I think that we should Break
The Curse
Or break it all

Like a burn, the pain is constant when it falls

Better run, hide, I made my move
Felt like like shit then somehow got it right and now I'm through
I'm a villain, just like you!

I think that with time you'll understand

That for once, my life has a plan
I won't let it go away that easy that's for sure
So I had to be straight with you, hell, we would have lost
I won't take it back, no way, no way
