"Not Ready"

Walking the streets just on my own, But conflict is in my mind, Wish knowledge was bliss, my mind cant keep up, My opinion I cant find.

The time is now and I'm not ready to go, I am unmoved still I cant be forced to go

I stand still but my thought still move on, I am unmoved
in my heart and in my soul

Still pushing on, a jungle stand still, So many things left undone, I do it to myself, just a product, Peoples ideas that I cant shun.

The time is now and I'm not ready to go, I am unmoved
still I cant be forced to go

Want to break free, Want an untainted mind
