This snowman is shaping up to be an eight but not out of ten
The robots awake to find that they've been taped down
Wondering when they'll break though these chains
But little boys have action toys for brains
I'm living proof it can last a long time

Now the girls up the street are innocent and sweet
Well they're all in bed
They got their makeup
And dreams of wonderland sprinkled inside their heads
Soon they will change but tonight Hollywood Hills never seem so strange
Their mothers pray it will last a long time

I wanna roll around like a kid in the snow
I wanna relearn what I already know
Just let me take flight dressed in red through the night
on a great big sled
I wanna wish you Merry Christmas
Ho ho ho

Now the boys are all grown up and they're working their fingers to the bone
They go around chasing them girls on the weekend
You know they still can't be alone
I've been racking my brain with thoughts of peace and love
How on earth did we get so mixed up
I pray to God it don't last a long time

I wanna roll around like a kid in the snow
I wanna relearn what I already know
Just let me take flight dressed in red through the night
on a great big sled

I hear the sound of bells
There's something on the roof
I wonder what this night will bring

I wanna roll around like a kid in the snow
(I hear the sound of bells)
I wanna relearn what I already know
(There's something on the roof)
Just let me take flight dressed in red
(I wonder what this night)
Through the night on a great big sled
(Will bring)

I wanna wish you Merry Christmas
Can't do that
I wanna wish you Merry Christmas
Can't do that
