I am no better at this than you are Unfinished business maybe, do love
I can't change myself into you dear
What you are to me is far too unclear

Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another one

Quit being a nail in my coffin and lord knows I ain't ready yet

Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another one

Quit being a line I'm crossing and I am never gonna get back from

Oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh

I am no better at this than you are Loneliness never truly leaves me alone
I have made mistakes I can't take back home I love you just not the way you want Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another one Quit being a nail in my coffin and lord knows I ain't ready yet
Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another
one Quit being a line I'm crossing and I am never gonna get back from

[illegible]

Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another
one
Quit being a nail in my coffin and lord knows I ain't ready yet
Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another
one Quit being a line I'm crossing and I am never gonna get back from
Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another
one
Quit being a nail in my coffin and lord knows I ain't
ready yet
Quit being a nail in my coffin and I don't need another
one Quit being a line I'm crossing and I am never gonna get back from

Oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh oh
