See I've upset the weather
See I've upset my sweet cloud
Growing black, thick and heavy
Strike me now, gonna put me down

See I've upset my brother
See I've upset his sweet heart
I love him so, in turn I kill
I know no words to make it right

I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing but I'll do anything to bring my brother alive
I know no words to fix my killing but I'll do anything to
bring my brother alive

Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool
Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool cool

See I've upset his morning
See I've upset his afternoon
I see no way, I see no right
When the night calls, it stays on the line

And I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing but I'll do anything to
bring my brother alive
I know no words to fix my killing but I'll do anything to
bring my brother alive

Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool
Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool cool

Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool
Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool
Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool cool
Lost a lot a blood, lost a lot a cool cool cool

I know no words to fix my killing

I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing but I'll do anything to
bring my brother alive
I know no words to fix my killing but I'll do anything to
bring my brother alive

I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
I know no words to fix my killing
