He's never been a man of compromise

Workin' like a dog ready set to sick his passion.
He's the guy - can put you in a state of fright -

He's a gambler
he pays the highest prize till He's a loser
he stands up every time and He's a winner because he knows the dirty tricks of life.

Who's that fool who steals my breath away

Who picks me up and kicks me down I don't know how.
Who's that fool who always plays that game that I don't really understand?
He's not easy
he's not a dreamer

He knows to break the rules and I know: He's a man.

Don't you worry 'bout his flight moods

It's so hard to know what he's feeling.
I never ask him why he needs to be so free -

He's a loner
he wants to have his own way

He's a brawler his nerves are shot remember He's a joker
he's puzzling all the world and smiles at you.

Who's that fool who steals my breath away
