well you walked on through the door telling me you need some more of your old friend with your hands in empty pockets and your eyes sunk in their sockets once again telling me it's gonna be the last time that you come to me this way just take you spoon, i'll see you soon traintracking the afternoon away there's only one destination only one kind of pain

seems you've found the station but you just can't find the vein
all aboard the train
all aboard the train

well the engineer is here making sure the tracks are clear of all debris 'cause if the train falls off the track ain't no way you're coming back to ride with me taking off your belt, your clothes and hop aboard between your toes somehow just pull it tight and say goodnight and i'll blow out the candle light for now

but you just can't find the vein

see what you've got i just don't want 'cause i know what it's got for me sure i've got my problems i've got proof, i've got the truth and it's gonna set me free you keep on playing pretend while you disappear my friend to the sugar that you depend on so bad charlie brown stay on the ground cuz this ain't no goddamn lucy in the sky go on call me crazy, must be hazy with those road maps in your eyes running out of places now your tracks are showing traces of desperation clearly gone insane

all aboard the train

you do your best so fuck the rest when it seems like nothing's gonna go your way just coppin' out can't cope without a train ride you can't do without today

"childish behavior" time to find some other savior realize there's nothing left to gain

just don't mind that pain seems you've found the station
said you just can't find the vein no more
