I've got a weakness for strong chemistry
one touch
all my resolutions change I can say this is no good for me still I'm back for more of the same

High on the ecstasy
medication against the pain our bodies fit desperately together like a needle against the vein

Poppy flower is so beautiful gentle as a lover's touch your touch is a touch of strong medicine yes it's possible to take too much we take it for comfort take away the pain for us poppy flower is beautiful and a thousand poppies is dangerous

Oh no can't go back again this time oh but every time I see her that magic seems to change my mind

all my resolutions change
still I'm back for more of the same

so strong
so strong
so strong
so strong
this you and me

so strong
so strong
so strong
so strong
this chemistry
