Look around
We've got no place to go
We've got nothing
But we're alright

The stage is set and everybody has got their cue
Hope the curtain won't fall too soon
On you and I

You look at me your eyes they
Gave you away I know
All they see are broken dreams in me

Doo doo doo doo...

You lie with me
Beneath an open sky
The world blown open wide
In outer space

We're just kids
We're of the strangest of kinds
But we're no stranger than our time

God knows we're not the same
We're tall chance and hard nose faith
All they see are hopeless things in these

We sing, doo doo doo doo...

So I live and I wait
When is it enough
I live and I wait
My day won't begin

So look around
We got one place to go
It don't matter where this River flows

'Cause we'll be free

There would be no chains to hold us down
We could leave this forgotten town
And run our way

I can't leave the sidewalk playground
With every crack of pavement gone down
North of nowhere is closer than it might seem

...doo doo doo doo

I live and I wait when is it enough
I live and I wait, my night will give way
I live and I...(secret word)
