I am tied by truth like an anchor
Anchor to a bottomless sea
I am floating freely in the heaven
Held in by your heart's gravity
All because of love
All because of love
Even though sometimes
You don't know who I am

I am you
Everything you do
Everything you say
You want me to be
You and me
We're charms on a chain
Linked eternally
One we can't undo
I am you

All my senses waken to the changes
And I feel alive inside my own skin
All my reasons tell me just how strange it is Coming home to a place I've always been
And it's all for love
And it's all for love
Even though sometimes I don't know who I am

I am you
Everything you do
Everything you say
You want me to be
You and me
We're charms on a chain
Linked eternally
One we can't undo
I am you
