Hey, it started out as friends
Friends turned into lovers
Do you remember when
I held you for the very first time
Love made it so easy girl
Well, you must read my mind
(I say...)
I want you, I need you
Oh, girl, how I believe in you
You're the light
That has always seen me through
In you ... I could find
That I will be
Forever by your side
Now we see our love has grown
And these have been the sweetest times
That I have ever known
And I know
That it will never end
'Cause every time I look at you
I fall in love again
I want you (I want you), I need you (I need you)
Oh, girl, how I believe in you
(You're the light) You're the light (that shines)
That has always seen me through
In you ... I could find
That I will be
Forever by your side
Longer than the sun will shine
Love is a tie that bind us
Forever, forever
Two hearts are meant to be
One love eternally
Together, forever, forever
I want you, I need you
Oh, girl, how I believe in you
You're the light
That has always seen me through
In you ... I could find
That I will be
Forever by your side

I want you (I want you), I need you (I need you)
Oh, girl, how I believe in you
You're the light (that shines)
That has always seen me through
In you ... I could find
That I will be
Forever by your side
