graduation song

So if you don't remember all the drinks that we poured
If you don't remember all the rules we ignored
If you don't remember all the reasons that we laughed
'Cause you start to lose track as time goes by
If you don't remember sneakin' in the side door
And if you don't remember skinny dippin' at the gorge
If you only can remember one thing at all
You have to promise me that you'll remember to call
So I can say hi

So take a shower, shine your shoes, brother Ain't no time to lose, brother, we're about to booze, brother
We're about to throw a celebration in honor of separation
Before we have to say goodbye
'Cause I woulda never made it through without each and every one of y'all
I woulda never made it through without the Adderall
I woulda never made it through without my Ray-Bans
No teacher's lookin' in my eyes
'Cause I would rather relax in my castle, havin' class was a hassle Hopin' this razzle-dazzle pays off when they pass me my cap and my tassel
But as the hours and the minutes diminish
I think about the business that we left unfinished Like who is gonna claim all this random jewelry that's on my nightstand?
I guess I know why they call it a one-night stand
But even if you can't remember names If you could remember everything, it wouldn't be the same

So if you don't remember all the drinks that we poured
If you don't remember all the rules we ignored
If you don't remember all the reasons that we laughed
'Cause you start to lose track as time goes by
If you don't remember sneakin' in the side door

And if you don't remember skinny dippin' at the gorge
If you only can remember one thing at all
So I can say hi

Ayo my life is like a picture of a lot of liquor
An exotic mixture of elixir and a sorority mixer
But this here, will probably be the last time
I can hit on so many girls without spending my last dime
Thankfully I passed wines, what did I take wines for?
Nobody ever used any of that on wine tours
But I guess that's the common theme Everything you know right now will one day all just be a dream
And these faces that are glowing are going to be unknown
When the place to which you're going is what you will call a home
And you'll forget about the Palms, and all of the sake bombs
But I hope you don't forget about us
So even if you've lost every single note from class Hopefully you come across the notes that we used to pass
And I know you will have thoughts of what we did in the stacks
I gotta say, your brain is really worth an A+
So this is dedicated to a stadium of dissipated hockey crowds
Dedicated to an empty table at Souvlaki House Hopin' that you call me, when you get out to Wall Street
I don't ever wanna lose touch
I wanna be like ay shorty, ay shorty, I just wanna say shorty
I miss you more than I used to miss my 8:40
'Cause sometimes that is all you wanna hear
When the buzz from the beer disappears

So if you don't remember all the drinks that we poured
If you don't remember all the rules we ignored
If you don't remember all the reasons that we laughed
'Cause you start to lose track as time goes by
If you don't remember sneakin' in the side door
And if you don't remember skinny dippin' at the gorge
If you only can remember one thing at all
You have to promise me that you'll remember to call
So I can say hi
