"Let's Burn"

I am dependable, I have the chemicals
I know the future is a big surprise
You are exceptional, some kind of digital
Let's get together for the rest of the night

And all those girls, they want those boys
With the stars in their eyes
They dance so close to the fire it burns
Like a white hot lie

I feel electrical, magnetic, mystical
I know the future is a big surprise
I see your intention now, my calculations now
You are the girl I'm gonna kiss tonight

And all those girls, they want those boys
With the stars in their eyes
They dance so close to the fire it burns
Like a white hot lie

Let's burn

Some wait for miracles, some make a spectacle
Still there are those who surrender and cry
We are exceptional, we have the chemicals
Let's get together for the rest of the night

And all those girls, they want those boys
With the stars in their eyes
They dance so close to the fire it burns
Like a white hot lie

And all those girls, they want those boys
With the stars in their eyes
They dance so close to the fire it burns
Like a white hot lie

And all those girls, they want those boys
With the stars in their eyes
And all those boys, they want those girls
Who can burn
