"Bless You"

Every time I faced the world
I just had to cry
I stood alone with no love of my own
But then you happened by

Oh, darling, bless you
Bless every breath that you take
Yeah, bless every move that you make so perfectly
And bless your little heart for loving me
Oh, bless you, bless you, child

'Til you smiled and took my hand
I felt kinda small
But you stood by me for the whole world to see
And then I was ten feet tall

Oh, darling, bless you
Bless every breath that you take
Mmm, bless every move that you make so perfectly
And bless your little heart for loving me

Oh, darling, bless you
Bless every breath that you take
Baby, bless every move that you make so perfectly
And bless your little heart for loving me

Baby, bless you
Bless every breath that you take
Yeah, bless every move that you make so perfectly
And bless your little heart for loving me
