All of the golden fields of the country are burning up under the sun.
When the cities are hot then where are you gonna go?
You feel the power when the rain is pouring,
And it's so cool when the night time has come
And you can hear the cheers when the thunder rolls.
This could be a new time, to do what is needed, or just let it go,
But we don't live off the land
Cause we got the upper hand
And we'll take what we can

Take the rock - find the diamonds and the gold.
Blow it up - find a reason for a war
Cash it up - take a little more money

Fill up the car, make a plan, make a call,
Pay your rent, have a drink, maybe talk about the weather.

This is the modern world, and we are a part of it.
Didn't think to stop it, because we didn't start it.
Do we really think at all?
When we put up the next wall?
We can't see the earth no more!

Take the rock - find the diamonds and the gold
Blow it up - find a reason for a war
Cash it up - take a little more money

You don't live off the land
You think that you've got the upper hand
And you're gonna take what you can,

Take the rock - find the diamonds and the gold.
Blow it up - find a reason for a war
Cash it up - take a little more money

Take the rock
Blow it up

Cash it up
