you start off just trying to fit in with your stupid clothes and your fake ass grin but i see right through your facade and instead of acting normal you just feel odd so just look in the mirror and look at your reflection the way your heading now your going in the wrong direction
so just do me one fuckin favour and rid this bullshit
from me

stop tellin' me lies
when was the last time you told me somethin' that wasn't a lie
rid this bullshit from me i tell you stop tellin' me lies
that wasn't a lie
rid this bullshit from me second time around its the same ol' song and dance your not even man enough to take a fuckin chance to have people see the real you and the stories that you barque aren't even close to true so just look in the mirror and look at your reflection the way you heading now your going in the wrong direction

from me

same old story tellin' us tales just trying to be cool well its the same old story you look like a fool to me
