Well I'm just walking around like there's someone watching over me
What did I as an individual do?
Maybe I'm paranoid, crazy, but I'm just trying to Avoid any blame that might come from you

The youth of today get the blame for others mistakes
You see half of them don't even participate
Running around here's something I've found
And I'm taking it with me to the, so!

We're not the scapegoats yeah for your society
We're not the scapegoats 1-2-3-4
We're not the scapegoats yeah for your society
Don't know who you want us to be

We are born innocent until proven guilty
Now what the fuck am I supposed to do?
Running around there's something else that I've found
But I don't really care so fuck you

The youth of today get the blame for others mistakes
You see half of them don't even participate
Running around here's something I've found
And I'm taking it with me to the, so!

We're not the scapegoats yeah for your society
We're not the scapegoats 1-2-3-4
We're not the scapegoats yeah for your society
Don't know who you want us to be

Looking at today, nobody on the same page
Open your eyes and look out for tomorrow
You think the war is done the battles just begun
Open your eyes and look our for the sorrow

Looking at today, nobody on the same page
Open your eyes and look out for tomorrow
You think the war is done, the battles just begun
I'm sick and tired of this shit, so!

We're not the scapegoats yeah for your society
We're not the scapegoats 1-2-3-4
We're not the scapegoats yeah for your society
Don't know who you want us to be
