her heart shivers in my hand she's melting on me like cotton candy I make the faces that make you cry I want you more when you're afraid of my disease, disease is draining me anymore you're not so pretty please disease, disease is draining me
I want you more when you're afraid of me I will break your inside out you are mine, you are mine I will break you inside out
you are mine, you are mine her hair hangs in swollen strings I'm choking on her, it feels so sickening
I make the faces that make you cry
my disease, disease is draining me
disease, disease is draining me
I want you more when you're afraid of me
