When morning time breaks
My lonely heart aches - yeah
No one I touch can tell me how much
A lonely heart takes

'Cause the walls fell down, and the seas ran dry
But nobody listens to my song
And the storm just broke, and the rain came down
But nobody listens to a clown - oh

I look for your light - ooh
By day and by night
I'm wasting my time just trying to find
Your face in my life - oh

'Cause the walls fell down, and the seas ran dry
But nobody listens to my song
And the storm just broke, and the rain came down
But nobody listens to a clown - oh ....
