I've seen you run through here from time to time
What's that you're chasing with an axe to grind?
You came out of nowhere to spit in the dinosaur's eye
Running off to save a girl in distress
But what you make is just a slippery mess
The whole place is crumbling and you are the only one left

Hunter from the future you put me on
Hunter from the future it seems you were fine all along
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep

They tire of talking like a fist through the door
And then you fly across the mezzanine floor
A bull in a china shop tearing apart the whole store
No use baiting
It's not translating out

Hunter from the future you put me on
Hunter from the future it seems you were fine all along
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
(Hold me down)
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
(Hold me down)
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
(Hold me down)
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep

Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
(Hold me down)
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
(Hold me down)
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
(Hold me down)
Now I'm only trying to break out from my sleep
