Setting the dials for hysteria
We're black and blue again
Solely Bavaria
Spinning around on my stereo
And watch the merry go
Round about the area

Yesterday I left America
To chase a foolish thing
Solely Bavaria
Sitting around on my patio
And tell the jokes I know
None of them hilarious

What was the point in taking off?
It's lost on me
What was the point in taking off?

All at once I feel like I'm catching on
All these sights and wonders
[repeat until fade]
