Jak Kelly

Are you really on the rebound?
Don't you know what you have done? Did you try and reach for something new?
Did you do it 'cause you loved him or did you do it out of spite? Is it really what you want for you?

Chorus:

Was it my fault that you turned around and grabbed the next one down or something that I said that made you change?

If it was then please forgive me 'cause I didn't know you cared after all it was so easy to arrange.

I thought we had it straight between us.
We were out for a good time.
Guess my mouth ain't always hooked up to my mind.
If it was I'd try to talk to you, tell you what to do. I'd surely like to try most any time.
(Chorus)

Just hold on and remember if you need you've got a friend, someone to share your secrets not your lies.
The time we had together was a crazy one at best and if we never fell in love at least we tried.

(Chorus)
