John Stewart

Chorus:

If there's one more town, I'll be goin'.
A fight for the winnin' I'll be there.
If there's one more song, I'll be singin'.
I'm always goin' but I don't know where.

(Backing singers) Keep a movin' a movin' on

I spent seventeen YEARS in West Virginia.
Eight more years just A-runnin' free.
But the girls back home in their blue gingham dresses
only heard one thing from me.

(Chorus)

Went down to New Orleans last summer on a flat boat workin' my way.
There were well-mannered ladies and streets that were shady, but for me, I never could stay.

(Chorus)

INSTRUMENTAL

Sailed up to New York on a schooner, but I won't be stayin' there long.
There were bright city lights,
girls in pink tights but their faces were all painted on.

(Chorus)

No I don't know where
No I don't know where
