

Kingston Trio, The

"Two-Ten, Six-Eighteen"

Visit "Two-Ten, Six-Eighteen" on MotoLyrics.com

I've been away so long
Fought a war that's come and gone
Doesn't anybody know my name?
Doesn't anybody know his name?

My sister's up and wed and mama's took to bed
Doesn't anybody know my name?

Please tell me if you can
What time do the trains roll in
Two-ten, six-eighteen, ten forty-four

The hedge is turning brown
And the fence is falling down
Doesn't anybody know my name?
Doesn't anybody know his name?

The girl I left behind has gone to Caroline
Doesn't anybody know my name?

Please tell me if you can
What time do the trains roll in
Two-ten, six-eighteen, ten forty-four

Fought that war across the sea
Almost died to keep us free
Doesn't anybody know my name?
Doesn't anybody know his name?

Now, I'm home and no one cares
Seems the troubles are only theirs
Doesn't anybody know my name?

Please tell me if you can
What time do the trains roll in
Two-ten, six-eighteen, ten forty-four

Doesn't anybody know my name?
Doesn't anybody know his name?

