inside my own world
feeling no love...
nobody cares if I die nobody cares if I live they don't care about me they got no love to give...

every time I roll around the set I gets all disrespect I can not see my life before my death until I take a breath
my life is barely breathing got my soul possessed by demons
I can hear my mama screaming her death is what I'm dreaming and now I've got another another brother but he's dead and smothered my mother told me that my father was drunk and disordered
I cannot live another minute man with no one in it I feel the pain inside its deep inside and soon I'll end it nobody cares if I die nobody cares if I live nobody cares if I'm high they got no love to give I sit alone inside my room I'm thinking to myself I'm thinking to myself I'd be better off to kill myself but I wanna live but I got no choice I hear the deadly voice
my mind is crazy panic skitzofrantic cold as ice I steady pray at night to get some from the God above but once again whats up they gimme no love

chorus:

everytime I rolls around the set I'm talking no love and all they did was disrespect 'cause there's no love and when my mama kicked me out she said there's no love
and all she did was scream and shout yea there's no
love
I finally found myself a girl but now there's no love and when she finally left my world screaming no love and now I'm sitting with no wealth screaming no love

I just want to kill myself no love

I'm having suicidal thoughts up in my mental state my mind is mentally shaded by this girl I meant to date she was my life me sacrifice but I could not live with out her

the only thing she loved was cocaine bashed into the powder

she never loved me just she just loved to sniff the yay-yo no

God rest her soul smoke a bowl she's just another dead hoe and when I told myself I can't believe why did she leave?

she left me bleed up on the death up on my demon seed

she never loved just my money then ran out the door but what you reap is what you sow so I let her go back to myself back to my health gotta drink my mind

better left to lay 6 feet deep inside my early grave I have no choice I hear the voice I hear the demons call do you see what I saw fuck no love fuck all of y'all and fuck the law and all the pain and thoughts of no wealth

good bye to all 'cause you know I gots to kill myself

I got no love

no love no love I'm left alone soon I will die soon I will die and once again I'll be left alone will I go to heaven above? or will I go strait to hell?

either way it don't matter nobody likes me nobody cares

NO LOVE!
