Late one night at the cafe
I think I had a greyhound that night
Lookin' for my lover in the darkness
She said she would meet me there

So she says why she was late
Said she couldn't get her hair done
Well you know how that is Constantly tapping on the table
Givin' me every indication something's wrong

Hey, hey Blue, I know you well
(I know you real well)
I can tell by the way you carry yourself

Hey Blue across the room
(I can see you)
I can see you
Oh, oh, when you're with him, I'm with you

She wears her lips dark, that's what I like
But it doesn't make things right, not tonight
As she dwells out the outdoor at the left
I followed her, oh you don't know what I felt

At that moment that I reached the sidewalk
I see this car, there she sits there
Then she doesn't even know me anymore
So I confront her with a smile
And a wave away, now Blue you know better

Hey Blue, I know you well
(I know you so well)
I can tell by the way you carry yourself

Hey Blue across the room
I can see you
Oh, oh, when you're with him, I'm with you

Hey Blue, I know you well
'Cause when I know you, I know you
And Blue knows

Hey Blue across the room
'Cause I'm inside of you, I watch your every move, ooh
(I know you so well, the way you smile)

I can tell when something's on your mind
(Hey Blue, I know you well)
It sort of shows in your eyes
The way you move your thighs

Hey Blue across the room
(You know, I know you)
I can see you oh
When you're with him I'm with you

Hey Blue and I can tell, carry yourself
Hey Blue, I can see you
When you're with him, I'm with you
