Intro: Tony Sunshine

Yeah...listen

This goes out to you, you, you and you

Your my baby (listen)

Chorus: Tony Sunshine

First of all, girl I want to tell ya, that I really love ya, and that I place no one above ya

Cause your my, my baby

And even though they say, "I'm a sucker for love" I'm caught up, I won't give you up

Your my, my baby

Verse I: Milly

Nothing ever meant, until I met shorty and feelings got involved

I was back to addressing problems that I already solved

Thought the fire will dissolve

But I'm burning in the inside

Cause I never learned about dealing with a womens pride, and I still can't hide

It's obvious and clear, That I wouldn't be the same if I knew you wasn't here

This relationship is rare, it's hard to compare

When your making shorty cry, but you know you really care

Bout the feelings that you share, how could it be this fare

When you trying to find love, and you know it's really their

If I was smart I wouldn't dare do nothing like that, so I got to get you right back

When we first started making progress, it was hard Baby I'll make a change, but I'm still the same nigga from the projects

This Playing games got to stop it, you know that I'm grown

I'm tired of holding all this feelings long as you know now

Chorus: Tony Sunshine

First of all, girl I want to tell ya, that I really love ya, and

that I place no one above ya
Cause your my, my baby
And even though they say, "I'm a sucker for love" I'm
caught up, I won't give you up
Your my, my baby

Verse II:Cristion D'OR

I just want to let you know, Your the reason the kids sprung
The queen of my kingdom, shit you got me thinking of kids hun
You got me thinking a ring with no prenupt
They say it's blind, but with her shit I can breath love, you see I need her She've been with me threw the bad and the good, my ride or die chick help me bag all my goods Even when I cheated she could have left but she stood I just don't know why Well I guess it is bigger then it appears, diamond I let it all glitter in her ear Even though might appear, my feelings of being scared
L-O-V-E is the reason we still here
They say you stand for nothing, you fall for anything,
but your my everything
They say you stand for nothing, you fall for anything,
but your my everything

that I place no one above ya
Cause your my, my baby
And even though they say, "I'm a sucker for love" I'm
caught up, I won't give you up
Your my, my baby
