I sang this to Mark at our wedding

Love will chase a restless wind
You turn your back and it's gone again
'Cause love won't cleave to love until Until love loves with all its will
I will be here in the morning

Until the morning sun don't shine
I will be here in the morning
Until the evening moon don't rise
I will be here in the morning
Love will cleave as lovers do
In the morning
As all my love loves all of you
I will be here in the morning
I'll still be here in the morning
