Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you makes all my pain go away
Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you lets me know things are gone

I feel responsible when it comes to you
That means I think that I'm addicted to you
I feel like life has just begun for us, yeah
See, there's no one else in this world
That I would'nt wanna trust

When beauty touches the world
I mean each boy and girl
That means our hearts must grow
Girl, let your feelin's show

Your life will soon come to pass
Our souls will always last
I know my self esteem just tells me
Where I'm supposed to be

Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you lets me know things are gone

This world is drunk and everybody's mad
We seem to forget to lend a helpin' hand
I knew this task was not gon' be easy, yeah
A lovin' heart like yours
Could bring back all the communities

If you just say the word
I'd spread my wings like a bird
And fly right in your nest
My queen, I'll try my best

To let my spirit flow
Yes, everyone will know
When we're together
Everything we do when the world must grow

Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you makes all my pain go away

Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you lets me know things are gone

If you know what I'm talkin' about
Clap your hands, come on
Just a little bit louder, come on
Just a little bit louder, come on
Just a little bit louder

Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you makes all my pain go away
Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you lets me know things are gone

Lovin' you makes my heart sing a song
Knowin' you makes all my pain go away
