Featuring Boots (The Coup)

[Ant Banks]

Yeah, to the break of dawn, you know? Let's do this

Chorus:

Niggas in Oakland all day long Be pimping these hoes from dusk til dawn Making cash real fast and you know it's on Hanging on the streets of Oakland

All we do is smoke that weed
And drink brew on the ave til we get keyed
And a little bit of head is all we need
Hanging on the streets of Oakland

[Ant Banks]

Welcome to the danger zone, where the niggas don't play that Every man for self, the rule is to stay strapped Cause rat packers try to jack that ass
From the jealousy that's built in the streets when you stack cash
And they'll blast, hoping they can get get it Punk, so if you got it, you best to get with it Or quit it, cause niggas be flipping over dope and Your friends might get you if you're slipping in Oakland Yeah, so don't play no punk-ass nigga close Cause they'll mash on your cash and get ghost
And don't say Ant Banks didn't warn ya
About the loced-ass gangstas killing in California That's where I'm from, nigga, rolling in my G-ride Hey, you gonna see me slide when I'm on the Eastside Making all my fucking gitnotes Making sure my gat straight smitnokes, smobbing with my fitnokes
That's all we doing is the town is seeing bitches clowning Kicking back getting high lounging It really doesn't matter what you do, yo chilling with your crew
You're sipping on a brew, you're pimping bitches too

And the shit don't bother me if that's how it's gotta be Then macking these hoes should be equality
See, the game goes deep when you're rolling Hanging on the streets of Oakland

Chorus

Nighttime falls and everybody's perking
No punks around so funks occurring
But the sideshow's back and everybody's flossing
In they ride trying to side and all the freaks are tossing
And brother with bump, trunk of funk is knocking Candy paint on they ride keeps the bitches jocking Knowing you's a balling-ass nigga everybody hates Rolling in the town with a pound straight dropping weight
Blowing up like dynamite Selling weed, yey, angel dust, hop, and China white Fuck it, you're making duckets, never riding buckets Playing punk bitches like puppets Yo, but there's a lot of fake counterfeit macks Playa hating on they homies trying to dry cat
To look good for the hoes, man these niggas ain't joking
Boy, you get that ass smoked in Oakland

Chorus

[Boots - spoken]

Aw yeah, The Coup is up in here, and we be talking about the real. Motherfuckas know that we know, that they know, that we know the deal. Now the originality of our principality is that we don't play the pimp. But the reality of our locality, and you'll learn this gradually, is that motherfuckas do this shit to pay their rent. But here's a hint: how we gonna get it straight when we bent? Shit, see I ain't never had shit but my stripes
and my game and my life, and all them's just hand downs from my grandaddy. Yeah, I'm living large kidding with Ant Banks, but I'm still hustling food stamps for my candy apple red Caddy. Alright
