well its just a sharp look in your eyes you derive your search for desire in a room with open doors
It's the languish that's in your mind that makes you feel so secure€|

So you can grow faint listless to live or feel affect longing for everlasting peace
To pine, desire
You caught my glimpse is it me your languish, your weakness sharply pointed at me

Try to derange me
I don't want you to but I want you

You're just a sweet thing that all implies satisfaction
"We're alone at last she smiles"
I got the feeling of an outcast burnt down to the ground
Another feeling that makes yourself insane Defectiveness, another feeling that you're incomplete
your languish, your weakness sharply pointed at me

we don't stop they're listening two time how bout a life?
Go get a life [x4]

Grow faint listless to live or be.
Affect longing for everlasting peace
to pine, desire.
Another feeling that you're incomplete
your languish your weakness sharply pointed at me
