I see you lying to my face unkind
Slice if hand has corroded in my mind
I've given up I've got nothing to give anymore oh -

As this man steps aside I am all alone
I locked door I can't speak
I just wanna turn into this bird of paradise

How can you touch me there I'm lying here inversed to you how can you touch me?

Give me a break I'm tired All I wanna do is live my life without this problem that lies within
I'm not scared but for your family no longer with me
What you said to me

Well you know I've been good That's why the advantage it was took from this old cunt Those thoughts were more than two words but he takes me away and I'm sorry think your time is up
Oh well I guess I'm one step better but he takes me away Oh well I know its your life you'll end with that blood on the floor
Well I'm not sorry

PAIN!
