you burn me out
and i think i've had enough of you break me down
and it's all my fault for blaming you

another chance
i'll bet you waste it
a stupid line and it erased the last good thing about you god I need a night without you another phrase I'll never repeat punctuated by the rhythm of your heartbeat one word: overrated
i'm so sick of your implications

stop wasting my time
wasting my night
wasting my everything you tough
stop wasting my life

and I think I've had enough of it
you break me down
and it's all my fault

and I think I've had enough of it
you break me down
and it's all my fault for blaming you

another sigh
you don't impress me
the perfect lie
perfect unless we wake up in the morning and forget all our cover stories
another chance?
what's your obsession?
so out of vogue
a loaded question
always ruins the moment

typical and I know you know it

stop wasting my time

and I think I've had enough of it
you break me down

For blaming you

and it's all my fault for blaming you
