If you loved me
Half as much as you said you did
Why'd you leave me?
Break my heart then come back again
If you love me turn around
And just let me go
Because the first time hurt more
Than you could ever know

Now look at me
Baby this time it's really over now
Look baby and I really think we need it
You told me that you loved me
But I guess you didn't mean it

If you loved me
You proved how much
That November night
When you left me
Then took a year just to change your mind
If you love me
Understand why I can't pick up
When you call me
I'm sorry but you assume too much
