Our hands touch as the record plays
You're the kind of the clever phrase
My hearts stalls as you call my name
You touch your hair and I do the same
We're both nervous that they're onto us
We have to be so obvious
And it's more than a little crush
All my words are rushed
And I'm feelingâ€¦WHOA

I can keep a secret if you can

Our eyes close as we cross the line
Your lips part and slowly move towards mine
My heart stops for the second time
A playful grin as you draw the blinds
We're both nervous that they're onto us
We have to be so obvious
And it's more than a little crush
All my words are rushed
And I'm feelingâ€¦WHOA

We never meant for this to end up like it did
We never wanted it, no we never wanted it.
We never meant for this to end up like it did
We might have wanted it, yeah yeah we wanted it
We never meant for this to end up like it did
We never wanted it, no we never wanted it
We never meant for this to end up like it did
We might have wanted it, yeah yeah we wanted it.
A midnight romance.
