Crawling from the brightness
Yet so unseen
Crying in the shadows
Feeling so sureen
Hearing people screaming
Wasteing their minutes away
And has anybody stopped to wonder
How she's doing todayâ€¦!

Oh who nos by now
I've fallen
They say get back up
But I've forgotten how
I've forgotten how.

One less day here
I don't think you're even near
Near the beginning
The beginning of this Tragedyâ€¦!

Listen with your ears not your eyes
Eye contact just fills people with lies
Who no's who can read those eyes
What hides behind them
Who nos what going on
Behind those blindsâ€¦!

Oh who nos by now
They say get back up
But I've forgotten how
I've forgotten howâ€¦!

Too many minutes
Moments..
Wasted away
And today
I sit and wonder
Has anyone stopped to notice
To askâ€¦!
How is she doing today?

Oh she's doing just fine
Not one that in her mind
Can't help to see
What's going on in front of me

She's wasting away
Through each passing day
Crawling from brightness
Not knowing where to go
So bright but not a sign to show
And all that's racing through my mind is

Oh who's now by now
They say get back up
But I've forgotten how
I've forgotten how

My pride..
My joy..
My life..
My toy..
Wasting away
And has anybody
Stopped to wonder
How is she doing today?
